

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY
Henry and Leigh Bienen School of Music

Assistant/Associate/Professor of Music Education

The Northwestern University Henry and Leigh Bienen School of Music invites applications for a tenure-track appointment in Music Education at the rank of Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor to begin September 1, 2012.

Qualifications: Completed doctorate in music education and successful public school and college teaching experience. Demonstrated potential (junior applicants) or significant publication and research record (senior applicants).

Responsibilities: Teach undergraduate elementary general music education and graduate level courses. Contribute to scholarly research and professional leadership in the field. Advise and supervise graduate research. Participate in School and University service.

Application: Screening begins Friday, November 4, 2011 and will continue until position is filled. Provide letter of interest; curriculum vitae; names, addresses and phone numbers of three references. Additional materials may be requested at a later date. Send materials to:

Chair, Music Education Search Committee
c/o Ms. Judi Ungashick
Northwestern University
Henry and Leigh Bienen School of Music
711 Elgin Road
Evanston, IL 60208-1200

Please visit www.music.northwestern.edu for information regarding the Northwestern University Henry and Leigh Bienen School of Music.

Northwestern University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. Hiring is contingent upon eligibility to work in the United States. Women and minorities are especially encouraged to apply.