

Complimentary Ticket Policy for Music Faculty/Staff

Bienen School of Music Faculty and Staff are welcome to as many complimentary tickets as they wish for most Bienen concerts and events. These include all student ensemble performances, faculty recitals, Tichio-Finnie Vocal Master Classes, operas in Cahn Auditorium, and certain guest artist concerts.

A limit to the number of complimentary tickets Music Faculty and Staff can receive shall only apply for the following events:

Subscription Series concerts* (limit: two (2) complimentary tickets per concert)

- Keyboard Conversations
- Skyline Piano Artist Series
- Segovia Classical Guitar Series
- Winter Chamber Music Festival

* Faculty who are performing in any Subscription Series concert are welcome to up to four (4) complimentary tickets to their concert.

Opera performances in the Ryan Opera Theater (limit: 4 (four) complimentary tickets)

Guest Artist concerts

In certain instances, the Concert Management Office may decide to limit access to complimentary tickets to high profile guest artist concerts. These determinations will be made on a case-by-case basis.

We encourage all faculty and staff to reserve their complimentary tickets in advance by contacting Claire Guyer, Ticketing Manager, directly at claire.guyer@northwestern.edu or 847-467-4214. You may also secure complimentary tickets immediately prior to the concert at the venue's ticket station.

Special Requests

Special requests for visiting student ensembles or other special groups should be made in advance to Claire Guyer, Ticketing Manager, at 847-467-4214 or claire.guyer@northwestern.edu.

If you are contacted by someone interested in bringing a group to a performance, please direct the interested party to Claire Guyer, Ticketing Manager, at claire.guyer@northwestern.edu.
