If your Ad Hoc Major is approved, do you intend to continue your current major/s? _____
If no, list major/s to be dropped _____
Proposed Title of Ad Hoc Major _____

AD HOC MAJOR APPROVAL PROCEDURE

1. Design your program of study, reflecting your proposed title. Students pursuing a Bachelor of Music degree must propose 12 total credits for an ad hoc major. Students pursuing a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science in Music degree must propose 10 credits. A senior project is recommended as part of the major requirements.
2. Secure the signature of a faculty member and program coordinator (if applicable) below. The faculty member's signature indicates that he/she has read and discussed your proposal with you, endorses the nature of your program, and confirms your capability to pursue it. The program coordinator's signature is required if at least half of your proposed major credits are in one specific area of study.
3. Submit this form along with a one-page attachment that includes your proposed list of course requirements and a supporting essay to the Office of Student Affairs. Your completed proposal will be forwarded to the Bienen School of Music's Curriculum Conference Committee for final approval.
