PROGRAM APPROVAL PROCEDURE

Declaration of a Department of Music Studies major requires the approval of the appropriate program coordinator. To consider a student for admission, the program coordinator may request a copy of the student's current transcript, an essay stating the student's interest and background in the chosen area of specialization, and/or the submission of previously written papers or projects on topics relevant to the program. The program coordinator should be consulted for specific admission requirements.

Upon completion, this form should be submitted to the Office of Student Affairs (RCMA 2-115).
